CONNECTING YOU TO THE PRODUCERS FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE BLACK SEA

MAKE TODAY YOUR REGISTRATION AT WWW.AGRITRADENET.EU

Within the AgriTradeNet project a website WWW.AGRITRADENET.EU is active and built solely with the purpose of informing and teaching the interested organizations in the participating countries. There you can find information for the project, active survey and its main part: a PLATFORM for local producers with the database for the produces, where you can PROMOTE your products, contact local producers from the cross border area and help each other by giving advice and exchange useful information for branding and trading with the agricultural products in the Black Sea Basin.

Online Questionnaires: take part in our research and answer to the attached questionnaire

In the website WWW.AGRITRADENET.EU you can find a section with published Online Questionnaires for customers and producers of the selected six products:

Bulgaria – Cheese	Romania – Tomatoes
Greece – Olive Oil	Turkey – Strawberries
Moldova – Berries	Ukraine – Honey

CAPACITY BUILDING TRAININGS TO STRENGTHEN CAPACITY OF THE LOCAL PRODUCERS

First trainings were made in Romania and Turkey

On 27/09/2019, Galati Foundation for the Promotion of Small and Medium Sized Private Enterprises (Romania) organized a Training addressed to local tomato producers on Organic Agriculture. The event addressed to a number of 30 participants was supported by Mrs. Prof. Dr. Magdalena TUREK RAHOVEANU, from the University "Dunarea de Jos", Faculty of Engineering and Agronomy Braila. The main goal of the 8 hours training was to familiarize the local tomato producers with the following themes: regulations and rules regarding organic agriculture activities; principles and good practices of organic agriculture; European and national funding programs; certification and labeling of organic products; exchange of best practices.
