OVERVIEW

Summary & Perks

- The offer is based on the number of passengers, min.10 passengers . Any change in the number of people may lead to price change.
- Due to the fluctuation of fuel prices, inflation requires
- for accommodation in the requested area during the school holiday period, the limited capacity of airline seats, the availability of local transport companies, as well as the date of making the bank transfer to our agency after obtaining the US visa, the rate is impossible to be guaranteed at the current level. It has chances of increasing as we get closer to the travel date.
- We mention that this offer does not include the travel insurance fee. Since US travel insurance agencies offer expensive policies and based on very strict medical conditions for foreign tourists in the US, we can't offer this service. It is the individual responsibility of each traveler, so we would recommend, as an important note, obtaining travel insurance for each passenger before departure from Romania.
